

Skills for Care's FREE virtual, half day 'Roadshows'

You are invited to Skills for Care Yorkshire and Humber and the North East team's first series of virtual, interactive Roadshows, where social care employers can meet and interact with their peers, share ideas and best practice.

Target audience – the Roadshows are aimed at: Managers, Deputy Managers, Workforce Learning and Development Leads of any social care provider service, as well as Individual / Direct Employers. [The Roadshows are not suitable for Learning Providers].

You and your organisation will directly benefit by:

- learning about the latest developments in the sector, how to support your workforce's learning and development and recruitment needs and how to make a real difference to people in our communities
- gaining guidance on how to meet the Care Quality Commission's new approach to inspections
- finding out how Skills for Care can support you, particularly in today's challenging environment

There will be interactive information sharing sessions on:

- Supporting you with values-based Recruitment & Retention
- Managing staff Induction, ongoing Training & assessment of Competence
- CQC's new approach to Inspections and enabling effective workforce Risk Assessments

Dates of nearest Roadshows

9th December (pm) West Yorkshire

Places are limited despite the Roadshows being delivered virtually (by Zoom), so please ensure you do book your place asap. Places are restricted to no more than two people per organisation.
